Dear parents,

As I am sure that you are aware, Parliament has decided that there will be a general election on Thursday 12th December. As always Malvern Hills District Council have decided to use the school as a polling station on this day, and therefore school will be closed to pupils.

The Governing Body and I predicted that there was a distinct possibility of a general election this year, and therefore we only allocated four of our five teacher education days, leaving us one spare. Therefore the 12th December will be designated a teacher education day, which I'm sure you will be pleased to hear, will mean that our pupils miss no additional time from school.

Yours sincerely,

Stuart Bill
